Happy June readers. Summer is here so it's time to get the sunshine playlists out and bathe in the heat!

Long nights are with us for a while so I'll certainly be making use of staying outside in nature for longer walks getting that vitamin C. Hopefully my hayfever plays nice.

There's lots to look forward to this summer in Beverley with the Beverley Folk Festival 16th - 18th June, Classic Car Mid Summer Gathering Wednesday 21st June and planning well ahead Bevfest, Saturday 8th July at Beaver Park.

SHE SHED FABRICS - "MAKING MEMORIES"

In the heart of Beverley, located in St Marys Court, N Bar Within, just a few doors down from Beverley Arms Hotel is She Shed Fabrics, a Fabric Shop, making memories and helping people make their ideas and creations come to fruition.

Suzanne opened She Shed Fabrics last August, looking to help people with a new hobby, help them improve their crafting skills through various workshops and classes, and taking nervous first timers crafters to become accomplished with their new skills to create memories for family and friends.

Suzanne is aware how important it is for people to have keepsakes and personal memories of family, friends or occasions. Memories are a good part of people's health and well being and Suzanne captures these with Memory Bears.

Memory Bears can be for any occasion; Christenings, Birthdays, Christmas, Anniversaries or holidays, and generating a bear from your fabrics, keeping those memories alive.

Pop into She Shed Fabrics, and with a cheery smile and a big welcome, Suzanne will be there to help you along the way, with advice on which fabric, colours and patterns, to help you make your own memories, along with providing top quality fabrics at affordable prices. She Shed Fabrics; "Making Memories that last a lifetime".

LIMBO SCREENS FOR BEVERLEY FILM SOCIETY IN JUNE

Beverley Film Society's May film, Parallel Mothers, proved to be the most popular film, so far, of the 2022/23 season. It was rated excellent or very good by 90% of members but maybe June's screening, Limbo, can top that?

Limbo is a 2023 comedy drama, starring Amir El-Masry as Omar, a promising young musician. Separated from his Syrian family, Omar is stuck on a remote Scottish island awaiting the fate of his asylum request. Limbo is a quirky comedy that explores the humanity that can be found while waiting for something - anything - to happen.

Limbo will be shown at Parkway Cinema, 7.30pm, Thursday 8 June.

Pippa Nixon, Chair of the film society said: "Membership has been fantastic this year with over 140 people currently signed up. A big thanks to all involved in the society for your continued support in what has been a fantastic season of films. The end of the season is a busy time for Beverley Film Society, as Limbo will be preceded by Beverley Film Society's AGM at 6.30, all members are welcome to attend."

Members are also reminded that there will again be the traditional free to members extra screening in July. This year it will be the acclaimed Danish classic, Babette's Feast, at 7.30pm on Thursday 13 July, at Parkway Cinema.

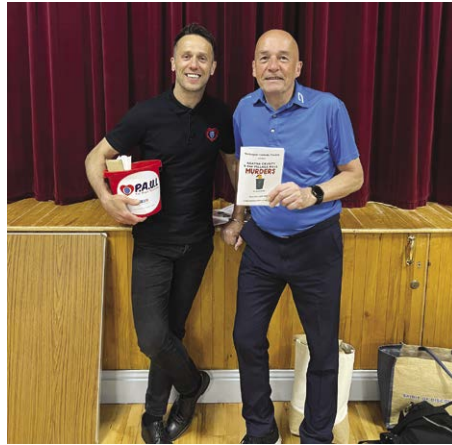

More information on the film society, membership, and this season's films, is available at www.beverleyfilmsociety.org.uk

WALKINGTON COMEDY THEATRE RAISES OVER £500 FOR PAUL FOR BRAIN RECOVERY

Walkington is well-known for its pantomimes, which have been performed in the Village Hall for over 50 years. In addition, though, each Walkington Comedy Theatre also performs a play. This year it was Agatha Crusty and the Village Hall Murders, which had audiences laughing throughout.

The sell-out production was very much a team effort by all, including Mortimer Gascoigne - who reliably died each night before the interval. In the cast, though, was Ben Gardiner as bumbling detective D I Twigg. Ben is also Captain of Beverley and East Riding Golf Club and has chosen local charity, PAUL for Brain Recovery, as the cause he is supporting during his captaincy year.

So the first night of Agatha, Tuesday 16th May, was a special performance in aid the charity, which provides support, guidance and education to individuals and families affected by acquired brain injury.

BEVERLEY TRAVEL NAMED BEST AGENCY IN THE BRITISH ISLES

Beverley Travel named UK & Ireland's No.1 Travel Agency as part of the TTG Top 50 Travel Agencies 2023: an annual power-list of the nation's best agents by industry bible, Travel Trade Gazette.

Beverley Travel was first named Yorkshire's Top Travel Agency in one of 12 regional categories before going on to be named the very best agency overall for 2023.

TTG editorial director Pippa Jacks said: "Now in its eighth year, our TTG Top 50 Travel Agencies initiative sees us tour the length and breadth of the UK and Ireland to find those travel agents who have worked smartest, provided the best customer service, and done most to contribute to a fairer travel industry, in the last year."

"We were delighted to see the high street travel agency sector performing so strongly, reaping the rewards of the extraordinary service they offered to clients during the challenges of recent years. There is no doubting that the high street travel agent is here to stay - and that holidaymakers are valuing their expertise more than ever."

The judges commented: "Beverley Travel's combination of expertise, concierge-style customer service and endless drive and creativity make it a real force to be reckoned with. Beverley Travel launched just three years ago, this is a travel agency getting everything right, from the in-store experience, to offering staff personal development training, to giving back to the local community. A very worthy winner of this prestigious title."

On winning the award Karl said, "It's a team effort, our amazing team, our suppliers all work together to deliver an amazing experience for our clients. To win this award is a fantastic achievement for everyone". Beverley Travel are a local Independent Travel agent, are actively involved with the local community. Karl said, "We think it is important to be involved with the local business community, as active members of the Beverley Chamber of Trade and other networking organisations we aim to give back and help create a thriving community. Through these connections we are able to support local causes which include Beverley Community Lift, ERT, Run with it, Paul 4 Brain to name just a few".

Beverley Travels future plans include launching their Travel Partners division, so that people can become self-employed Travel Agents and learn from them, having started the same way just over 5 years ago. More branches are a possibility, as well as launching an online booking service for simpler travel elements.

BEVERLEY 10KM NEW COURSE RECORDS

On Sunday 14th May 2023, on a beautiful Spring morning, the runners set off adjacent to the Beverley Minster for the Beverley 10km.

The conditions were ideal for the runners and with a stunning display of athleticism and determination, both Jordan Skelly and Della Hatfield shattered the 10km course records.

Jordan Skelly from Lincoln Wellington Athletic Club beat the men's course record with an astonishing time of 30 minutes and 12 seconds, while Della Hatfield from City of Hull AC broke the female course record with a time of 34 minutes and 24 seconds.

Both Jordan and Della left their competitors in awe as they blazed through the course, showcasing unparalleled speed and endurance, setting a new standard of excellence in distance running.

The crowd erupted in applause as the record breakers crossed the finish line, etching their names in Beverley running history.

Both runners remarkable achievements will undoubtedly inspire generations of runners to push their limits and strive for greatness.

Our congratulations go to both Jordan and Della for making history in the Beverley 10km.

TOM ASTELL ELECTED THE 4

Every year by law, Town Councillors have to select a Chairman from those elected to serve on the Beverley Town Council. At the Annual Meeting of Beverley Town Council, Tom Astell was elected as Chairman and the Mayor of Beverley.

The first recorded Mayor of Beverley was Edward Ellerker in 1573. Councillor Tom Astell became the 419th Mayor of Beverley.

The role of Chairman of the Town Council is to ensure the orderly, lawful transaction of business at Full Council meetings, for which they receive advice and guidance from the Town Clerk.

The Chairman does not act as a leader of the Council or have any more powers than any other individual Councillor.

The role of Mayor is to act as a civic representative of the town and fulfill many traditional and ceremonial duties. The Mayor is often described as the “First Citizen of the Town”. Regardless of gender, the title is Mayor, not Mayoress.

The Mayor may select a Mayoress or Consort to accompany them to civic events, but this post has no legal standing or other duties. During the meeting a Deputy Mayor will also be elected.

The term “Chairman” is a legal one - the Local Government Act 1972, which directs how Town Councils are governed, makes no legal provision for the terms “Chairwoman”, “Chairperson” or simply “Chair”.

The roles of Chairman and Mayor cannot legally be separated, making it a challenging but rewarding responsibility to keep Council meetings in check, whilst also being the official civic representative of the people of Beverley.

Councillor Tom Astell, is Mayor of Beverley 2023-2024, with Councillor David Boynton elected as Deputy Mayor for the period. During the meeting, outgoing Mayor Councillor Linda Johnson thanked former Councillors for their service.

The outgoing Mayor reflected on her two years in office as the first woman to be Mayor of Beverley for two consecutive years.

She commented that the past 12 months had been especially remarkable, as during her time in office she had marked Queen Elizabeth II Platinum Jubilee, the sad death of Her Majesty, the Proclamation of King Charles III and his subsequent Coronation celebration.

The outgoing Mayor also spoke of other highlights, including the planting of 1,200 trees in and around Beverley to mark the 1,200th anniversary of the death of our town’s founder, Saint John of Beverley. As she departed from her role she thanked her husband, Councillor Graham Johnson, who has acted as her Consort, her fellow Councillors for their support, her Chaplin Reverend Fran Rhys and the three Town Council Officers and Macebearer for their hard work and dedication to the Town Council.

Councillor Johnson announced that over the past year, she had raised £1,538.30 for Guide Dogs and £400.29 for the Open Doors Project. In addition, £150 was donated to SSAFA last December in lieu of sending out civic Christmas cards

Tom Astell, having previously held the post of Mayor of Beverley in 2020-21, had most of his civic duties cancelled due to the Covid Pandemic.

19TH MAYOR OF BEVERLEY

He explained: "One of the duties of being Mayor is to represent Beverley at events and celebrations in other towns, alongside holding a range of civic occasions in Beverley, such as the annual Civic Dinner and Civic Service, plus a host of other community-based events to raise funds for my chosen charities. During 2020-2021 most of the civic occasions ceased, therefore, I am honoured and delighted to have been selected as Mayor of Beverley for 2023-2024. I have lots of ideas for the coming year and look forward to representing the people of our wonderful town to the very best of my abilities."

The newly elected Mayor Councillor Astell presented commemorative town crests to former councillors David Tucker, Chloe Hopkins and Ian Gow, and thanked Ann Willis and Duncan Jack in their absence.

In particular, Councillor Astell noted that Mr Jack was first elected to the Town Council in 1999 and had been the longest serving member until his recent retirement from post. He commented on the amazing service he had given the Beverley community over the past 23 years.

Newly-elected Town Councilors are Councillors Bob Morgan, John Rebecchi, Adrian Ramsdale, Eliza Whitaker, Pedro Regina and Cheryl Giles, along with Peter Astell, Graham Johnson, Tom Astell, Alison Healy, David Horsley, Linda Johnson, David Boynton and Denis Healy who were re-elected.

In his role as the new Mayor, Councillor Astell welcomed them all and promised residents both he and they would work hard to do their very best for the town and people of Beverley.

I'VE BEEN THINKING... SAYS COLIN RAYNOR

As the month of June brings with it glorious days of sunshine (maybe not too hot) and we hope for times of enjoyment and laughter that will lift our spirits, I hope I do not appear to be too curmudgeonly this month.

I have been thinking for a while however that perhaps, in some aspects, I am viewing life a little differently from others. Let me explain and then maybe you might consider your own view.

There are some phrases which I have known all my life and so know just when to use them to enhance the meaning of a conversation for instance. One such phrase, which I hear less frequently these days and which I do hope is not going to fade way from modern speech is "common sense".

I can recall my father telling me to "use your common sense lad" or even, "show a bit of common sense" which suggested that there were varying degrees of this "common sense" that could be applied to resolve the difficulty I had got myself into. That did seem to be the reason for this phrase being used. A situation had arisen and it seemed there was no easy way of resolving the dilemma.

It could be applied to many everyday incidents such as not standing in the pouring rain and getting wet through when you could get inside and keep dry.

Common sense relied on simple sound principals such as don't spend more than you earn, and accepting that life is not always fair. Maybe sometimes you are at fault in a given situation, so common sense says admit it and move on.

Therein maybe lies the demise of common sense. An increase in well intentioned regulations has come into being which does not afford the principle of common sense to apply any more. Consider reports of a school teacher losing their job for reprimanding an unruly pupil or a six year old being charged with sexual harassment for kissing a classmate.

Common sense had an element of simplicity to it that seems to be frowned on today because of the expressed need to look at a situation from every possible angle.

Whilst this may still apply in some situations common sense took a severe knock when churches became businesses and appeared at times to project the need for finance before what the local community expects from a place of worship. Or consider the case of the man who tried to defend himself from a burglar but who was subsequently taken to court for assaulting the intruder to his house.

One of the most bizarre episodes I read about was of the person who failed to realise that the coffee they had just purchased was quite hot. Having spilt it down their clothes they sued and were rewarded with a huge settlement.

As I suggested at the start this is my view and maybe I've got it all wrong and maybe common sense has had its day. Perhaps you could get together with friends and discuss it as you enjoy that cool drink in the long summer sunshine. Happy days...

As we head into June and the longest days of the year, the sun sets more towards the North West, meaning that through the height of summer, you can watch the sunset at places along the coast like Whitby Harbour, Saltwick Bay and Filey Brigg.

The sunsets themselves are usually impressive enough, but I often find the early evening light or the warm glow after the sun has dipped below the horizon, provides the most interesting light for photography. Even the blue hour creates some beautiful colours!

The warmer weather also brings out the plants, insects and reptiles which are hidden away through the colder seasons. Whenever I'm out on the North York Moors through the Summer, I always try to walk quietly to find Adders basking in the morning sun, or Slow Worms along the rivers and amongst the undergrowth.

Many of the flowers are also in bloom this time of year and you may see flowers like this

Bee Orchid growing around the nature reserves and even in the verges.

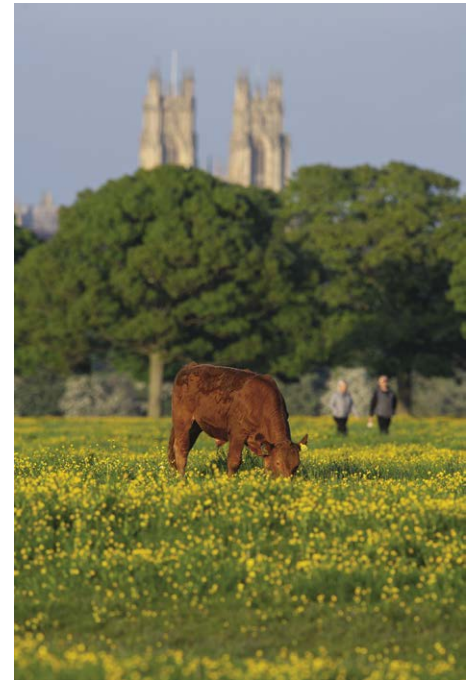

Through the Summer I often take my macro lens with me on walks as there are so many flowers and insects to see.

For my next article I'll share some of my macro photography from the garden along with a few tips on getting the best shots with macro photography.

You can find more information about my work and full portfolios on my website and my social media pages and if you have any questions don't hesitate to get in touch.

SHANE ASKS, DID YOU KNOW? THE HISTORY OF FISH AND CHIPS

Shane Cooper, Lincoln Way's Fish and Chip man, has been frying fish and chips for over 23 years and manages Stuarts of Driffield Fish and Chip Shop on Lincoln Way. We welcome Shane with his column "Did you know"?

Although fish and chips have been a staple food in Britain (and other commonwealth nations over the decades), its origins are not entirely clear and has been much debated.

Fried fish was first introduced and sold by the East End Jewish culture; however, chips became increasingly popular in Lancashire and Yorkshire. Some say that during the 17th century, the western settling Jews would have prepared fried fish similar to 'Pescado frito' which is coated in flour. The fish would then be dipped in batter (flour mixed with liquid, usually water, sometimes beer). Others believe that the battered fish first appeared as early as the 16th century, when Spanish and Portuguese Jewish settlers were firstly living in the Netherlands before staying in the UK. The day of rest in Jewish culture (Shabbat) was on Fridays and so the fish was eaten on this day.

For some of us, Friday is still a day for fish and chips! Over in Britain, the potato appeared during the 16th century, where the first published recipe for something similar to what is now known as 'chippy chips', was in 1817.

According to some research, the first fish and chip shop was opened in London around 1860 by a man named Joseph Malin. He sold 'fried fish in Jewish fashion'.

Others argue that it was in fact the entrepreneur John Lees who first combined fish and chips by way of setting up a hut in the industrial market of Oldham, Lancashire, around 1863. Since fish and chips had lived separately, decades before this time, it may be that they have in fact co-existed but never popularised.

During the 1870s, the earliest purpose-built fishing vessel was created by David Allen and so this marked the beginning of the fish industry we know today, due to the development of trawl fishing in the North Sea. Fish and chips became the staple meal across the British working classes and the development of railway connections meant that distribution of fish reached far and wide. The deep-fried chip has been mentioned in many literatures including: A Tale of Two Cities (1859) and Oliver Twist (1837) by Charles Dickens and also George Orwell's The Road to Wigan Pier (1937).

The modern day 'chippy' has its roots in the UK and started with a large cauldron of cooking fat heated on coals. This later evolved into the traditional 'fish and chip shop' (early 1920s) where people used newer ways to fry fish and chips and also added the customer counters and food wrapped in paper. Well, we don't wrap in newspaper anyone, as that's most likely a health hazard by today's standards!

Fish and chips became so important to Britain, that the supply was safeguarded during the first and second world war. It was one of the few foods not to be rationed. Fish and chips continued to be popular over the decades and so in 1988 The National Fish and Chips Awards was created. Fish and chips continue to be a good old staple in the U.K. and we now have several of them in most towns and cities. How can we not think of fish and chips when we are at the seaside, or on Good Friday every year! And that good old combination of protein and carbs means we can eat them as a treat. Well, it's definitely good for the soul!

MAKE YOUR MONEY WORK FOR YOU

You work hard to support your family and enjoy life, so it makes sense that your money should knuckle down too. This is where a little expert advice can make all the difference.

Our lives are busy and complicated. Families today can be fragmented, increasing demands on our time. You'd be forgiven for thinking that the latest technologies should make things easier, but that's not always the case. In fact, information overload can often leave us feeling overwhelmed and unsure about which way to turn.

In so many areas, we rely on experts to point us in the right direction.

If your car breaks down, you see a mechanic. If a tooth aches, you go to the dentist. The same should be true of our finances. Why wouldn't we ask the experts and make sure they're being managed effectively?

Discover our holistic approach

We understand that everyone's finances are unique. So at St. James's Place we strive to offer a long-term, relationship-based service that focuses on what you need, as well as what motivates and inspires you. It's this holistic approach that means we can then find solutions that work well together and match your attitude to risk.

So much financial choice can be bewildering.

We're here to guide you and advise on changes to the financial landscape and the options available for you.

Knowing that your investments are being managed by seasoned professionals and that your worries are our concern can be a huge relief. You can also relax in the knowledge that we'll be here to support and guide you on every step of your financial journey.

We want to know you and your finances inside out - and keep it that way. After all, we've learnt from experience that the best wealth management service comes via thorough understanding and personalised, face-to-face advice. It's what we're passionate about.

Here's where we can help

You can trust us with a number of financial solutions. From a broad range of funds providing the potential to grow your savings and protect them against inflation, to pension advice - whatever your age. We can also help you make the most of retirement, find the best protection for you, your family and your business, and advise on Inheritance Tax issues.

If you're remortgaging, downsizing or buying your first home, let us help you find the mortgage that will work for you. Whatever it is you need, we have your needs at our core.

We take the time to really know your finances and find ways of making your money work harder for you. Your home may be repossessed if you do not keep up repayments on your mortgage.

The value of an investment with St. James's Place will be directly linked to the performance of the funds selected and the value may fall as well as rise. You might get back less than you invested.

The levels and bases of taxation, and reliefs from taxation, can change at any time and are generally dependent on individual circumstances.

If you'd like us to help you make the most of your hard-earned savings, give us a call. We'd like to get to know you.

To receive a complimentary guide covering wealth management, retirement planning or Inheritance Tax planning, contact Navigation Wealth Management on 01482 379504 or email navigationwm@sjpp.co.uk

Invest with confidence

Investing can be daunting. Where's the best place to put your savings? What level of risk are you willing to take? How might fluctuating markets affect your investment? And how can you monitor performance?

We understand. Which is why we aim to take the stress out of the process. At St. James's Place, our distinctive approach to investment management calls on the expertise of some of the world's leading fund managers. Which means healthy long-term investment performance is within your grasp. What's more, being local means we're here to help whenever you need us.

The value of an investment with SJP will be directly linked to the performance of the funds you select, and the value can therefore go down as well as up. You may get back less than you invested.

EUROPEAN MASTERS LADIES ANSWER 10 QUESTIONS

At Just Beverley we enjoy good news and great achievements from people who live/work or have links to Beverley.

This month we put questions to two GB athletes who have just achieved European success in their chosen sport, Olympic Weightlifting. Lynne Auton MD of Stipendia, won a Bronze medal in her age and weight category at the European Masters, held in Southern Ireland, while Carol Marshall, Head Mistress at Wawne Primary School became European Champion with a Gold in her age and weight category. We asked the ladies 10 questions.

Q1 - How do you start the day?

C: Three alarms, a high protein breakfast and cup of black tea.
Lynne: Competition day - depends where the competition is, so would be either a drive to the venue with an early get up or wake up in a hotel. There would be a weigh in to ensure I was under the correct weight limit, followed by a high protein/high carb breakfast, usually chicken with pasta, a bagel, protein shake. Normal day - up at 5.30am (only one alarm - do not snooze!!), get ready, sort out lunch and then eat a high protein breakfast. Depending on how close to competition, depends on what I eat.

Q2 - How did you get into weightlifting?

C: I have always participated in sport from a very young age, initially gymnastics, swimming and dancing, then athletics where I went on to represent Great Britain and then Olympic Weightlifting, again competing for Great Britain. I then took a break for 16 years and came back to Olympic Weightlifting in 2017, with absolutely no intention of competing; that lasted all of 6 months as my competitive side took over, now I train every day and competed at least four times a year.

L: My personal trainer advised that as I was "getting on a bit" I should consider weight bearing exercises rather than cardio! I have always been involved with sports, either running, hockey or just gym training.

Q3 - What are your ambitions in work & in sport?

C: I would like to take early retirement from education and then set up a training facility coaching children and teenagers Olympic lifting and strength training to support their safe technique development and their chosen sport. I would like to medal at the World Masters Weightlifting Championships in August 2023.

L: Work - to continue growing my business with an aim to retire happy and healthy. Sport - would love to increase building my strength, both physically and mentally, and aim for new personal bests in both lifts.

Q4 - What music do you listen to before you lift? How do you motivate yourself?

C: Relaxing music as I start the warm up process but my ultimate lifting song and one which supported my British record and success at the Europeans is Guns and Roses, Sweet Child O' Mine, the intro of this song is fantastic.

L: I have a competition play list which is a mixture of 70's, 80's and 90's music including rock and pop. More relaxing music to warm up to, then more rock songs before going out to lift. My motivation comes from keeping fit and healthy and working to my best.

Q5 - Who do you look up to - work and leisure?

C: In work I actually admire the children and the resilience they show and determination they have to succeed, even at just the smallest of things, they inspire me and remind me of that no fear attitude we all had a child but seem to lose as we get older. In leisure, I don't admire anyone specifically but I do admire people who take responsibility for themselves and their life and get out there and fight to achieve no matter what life throws at them, no excuses, just pure determination and grit.

L: Leisure - my fitness and nutrition coaches, Adam and Sam Travis. They not only run a successful gym and nutrition business in Stalybridge, but look after their family and have time to send powerful, uplifting messages and check in every week with their gym family. In work - no one in particular, but those who work hard and encourage others.

Q6 - Favourite meal - in training and away from training?

C: Chicken and rice, in any shape or form or flavour but it is a daily must.

L: In training this would be chicken and pasta. As a treat I love to go out for a steak and a bottle of wine, or a Thai meal.

Q7 - Have you always been competitive?

C: Always, in everything, since birth - if someone tells me I cannot achieve something, I will do everything to prove them wrong.

Q8 - What's on your bucket list for 2023/24?

C: To achieve a medal at the World Championships in August 2023 and and achieve more national records. To defend my titles and records in 2024. I'd also like to travel more and train with more weightlifting groups across the UK and abroad.

L: To retain my British title and to compete in the European's again, this time aiming for at least silver. I would also like to achieve more personal bests.

Q9 - What is your mantra in life?

C: Be brave, be strong, be you.

L: Live the life you dream.

Q10 - How would you describe yourself in one sentence?

C: Hardworking, determined, positive, fun and a little bit bonkers.

L: Determined, positive, stubborn and a little bit mad!

NORTHMEN SPIRIT - A RANGE OF FLAVOURS

Over the last two decades or so we have seen a massive increase in the range of flavours available in both our Spirits and Beers.

With gin the flavour explosion was facilitated by the introduction of new tonics which brought out the full flavour of existing gins and encouraged new distillers to enter the market with new and more innovative gin flavours.

Whilst Craft Beer may have a longer history we have seen a comparable development of flavours over a similar period of time, one catalyst for this was the introduction of the Small Brewers Relief in 2002 which saw an increase in the number of new, smaller and more pioneering breweries being established.

The increase in the number of small breweries saw a huge range of different styles and flavours being (re)introduced to the British drinker.

From Belgian style Saisons, Gose and Sours to the new American West Coast and New England IPA's there are enough flavours and styles to keep even the most dedicated beer drinker happy.

With the delicious smorgasbord of flavours now available to us we have also seen a move towards favouring quality over quantity with many people looking to ensure that they enjoy the very best produce they can whilst reducing the amount consumed.

At NORTHMEN SPIRIT and BAR SEVEN93 we stock a range of beers, spirits and wines to please most palates and focus on producers from across Yorkshire and the North.

With eight keg lines behind our Bar and a great selection of local wine and spirits there is sure to be something for everyone.

Craft beer has become increasingly popular in recent years, and for good reason. THE POWER OF GIVING: MAKING LIFE MORE MEANINGFUL

In a world often consumed by the pursuit of personal success and material gain, it is worth remembering the profound truth encapsulated in the timeless quote by Winston Churchill: "We make a living by what we get, but we make life by what we give."

Whilst making a living enables us to meet our daily needs, it is through giving selflessly that we find purpose, create connections, and leave a lasting impact on the world around us.

This morning I joined an ever-growing group of people who set off at 6am for an hour of walking and talking. The group is run by Paul Longley who dedicates his time to helping people overcome mental health challenges, a passion that has arisen from his own experience. On the walk he said, "that's why I give up my Mondays for this" and it's clear to see that he encapsulates the saying "if you do what you love, you'll never work a day in your life". Whilst his passion started with Andy's Man Club, this has broadened to include his own business with Think Mental Health, delivering inspirational talks and courses.

I have volunteered for Dove House Hospice for a number of years and can heartily say that it has been a pleasure to give my time to such a fabulous cause but over the last couple of years, I've found I have been busier than ever and not attended my reception duties as often as I used to, plus with the ever increasing cost of living, paying the bills has also become a priority.

I have wondered whether many charities have been impacted in this way, not only by the huge increases in bills that we're all aware of, but also by a reduction in availability of volunteers.

I can only say that from my own experience, I have received far more from giving my time than I've ever received from paid work so if you have a few hours to spare, there are many amazing local good causes and charities that need you.

Local organisations such as East Riding Theatre, SSAFA, East

Riding Food Bank and The Lions are some of the many great causes that benefit from the work of volunteers. You could pop your head in one of the charity shops along Toll Gavel and ask if they need help - just a few hours can make a huge difference. My suggestion would be to choose something you love doing so it won't feel like work at all - driving, gardening, talking to people, organising or maybe your skill in accountancy, HR etc; choose an environment you love being in and see if there's a volunteering role in an organisation that's close to your heart that fits your criteria or maybe challenge yourself and do something completely new! I will be forever grateful to the driver who took me to my chemotherapy appointments when I was 25 years old and undergoing treatment for lymphoma and couldn't drive myself. His kindness will be forever with me. Could you be that person for someone?

Every week on a Monday evening, I run online mindfulness sessions free of charge. These sessions present a wonderful opportunity to take time out for yourself. If you'd like to join a session just drop me a message or give me a call on the details below.

For more information and details on further techniques including hypnotherapy, visit www.francesdunning.com or contact me, Fran Dunning on 07973 819867.

21ST JUNE 2023 - SUMMER SOLSTICE

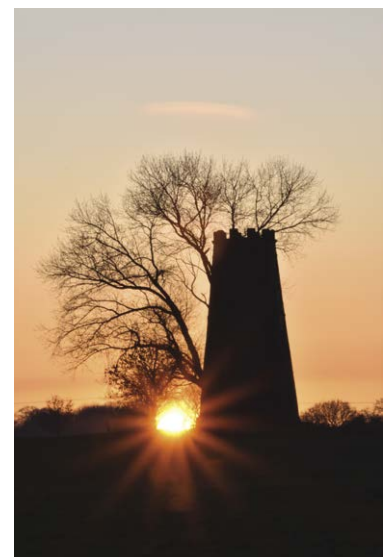

The summer solstice, also known as the longest day of the year, is a significant astronomical event that occurs annually around June 21st in the Northern Hemisphere.

During this time, the Earth's axial tilt leans most towards the sun, resulting in the maximum amount of daylight hours and the shortest night of the year.

The summer solstice has cultural and historical importance in many societies. It has been celebrated and observed in various ways throughout history, often associated with rituals, festivals, and traditions. People gather to witness the sunrise or sunset, engage in outdoor activities, and celebrate the abundance of light and warmth that summer brings.

The longer daylight hours of the summer solstice offer opportunities for extended outdoor activities, such as picnics, barbecues, and sports. It is a time when nature is in full bloom, with vibrant colors and flourishing vegetation. The solstice serves as a reminder of the cyclical nature of the seasons and the ever-changing celestial dance of our planet.

Overall, the summer solstice represents a time of joy, vitality, and the appreciation of nature's beauty, as it marks the peak of sunlight and the beginning of summer.

THE KING'S OFFICIAL BIRTHDAY - SATURDAY 17TH JUNE 2023

The King's Birthday Parade (Trooping the Colour) will take place on 17 June 2023. The Sovereign's birthday is officially celebrated by the ceremony of Trooping the Colour (King's Birthday Parade).

With an impressive display of pageantry by Regiments of the Household Division, on Horse Guards Parade, His Majesty The King will be attending and taking the salute. There will be three newly appointed Colonels within the Foot Guards, announced on the day.

- Colonel, Grenadier Guards - The Queen Consort
- Colonel, Welsh Guards - The Prince of Wales
- Colonel, Irish Guards - The Princess of Wales

Trooping the Colour

The Trooping of the Colour marks the official birthday of the British Sovereign and has done so for over 260 years.

This year will be His Majesty King Charles III's first Trooping of the Colour as Sovereign. There will be over 1,400 parading soldiers, 200 horses and 400 musicians coming together in a great display of military precision, horsemanship and fanfare to mark The King's official birthday.

The parade will move from Buckingham Palace, down The Mall to Horse Guards Parade, with members of the Royal Family on horseback and in carriages. As is usual for these occasions the display will come to a close with an RAF fly-past, watched by Members of the Royal Family from the balcony at Buckingham Palace.

WILSONS WHEELS ON THE PODIUM

Wilson's Wheels lead by example, whether that be on the track, road, gravel or mountain bike routes. This experience is transferred to ensuring the customer is put first, so the expert advice continues through to the customer.

Nathan from Wilson's Wheels said, "Bikes and bike technology are constantly changing, so you need to be on top of it, being amongst the finest rides in the country. We get the feedback on performance and quality of products first hand, and deliver this knowledge to our customers, so they can cycle with confidence".

The Wilson's Wheels Team are constantly on the go, and during May have already experienced several podium finishes.

Both Nathan and Dave achieved podium positions while Adrian Hill finished 13th in a World UCI event in Scotland. A fantastic achievement in itself.

For the right advice and to keep you on track, Wilson's Wheels are right behind you.

CARFAN - THE ALFA ROMEO SPIDER

The subject of this month's column will be familiar to anyone who has seen the film The Graduate - an Alfa Romeo spider.

Whilst the car took second billing to the Simon and Garfunkel soundtrack, this particular vehicle was first choice for a member of the Belgian royal family before making its way to the U.K. in 2001.

Alfa is an acronym of Anonima Lombarda Fabbrica Automobili and in keeping with the film theme, to paraphrase Michael Caine - not a lot of people know that, with the Romeo part referring to one of the founders, being added in 1920. The model featured is a Series 4 originally registered in Padua in 1991 and has clocked up 73,000 miles so far, sharing a garage with a Series 2 spider and this undoubtedly makes the owner a bit of an Alfafan as he has previously owned another! It has benefited from a repaint, new hood and a fast-road suspension upgrade.

Owning any Alfa can be challenging to say the least and the current owner is keen to keep it in as good condition as possible by taking advantage of the winter months to address minor dents/marks and clean the interior. Should you wish to have a Spider in your garage, be prepared to spend in the region of £13,000 depending on the model type but great caution is recommended as there is a surprisingly large amount available and "Buyer Beware" certainly applies here so having it thoroughly checked beforehand could save a lot of pain in the wallet. Research shows that this is a rare sight on our roads nowadays, probably due to rust and poor Italian build quality, so if you should be lucky enough to see one of the approximately 700 of all types still on the road don't forget that cheery Carfan wave!

DISCOVERING SKERNE WETLANDS

This is such a little-known, hidden delight, I've had to think long and hard about sharing it, but such is my regard for the discerning readers of Just Beverley, here, I do so.

Skerne Wetlands, is a 45 hectare oasis of nature on our doorstep, dissected by the sublime chalk stream that is the River Hull in its upper reaches. It is based around 80 ponds of a former trout farm, and absolutely teems with birdlife - including the thrilling spectacle of marsh harriers.

This Yorkshire Wildlife reserve is not marked by road signs, you have to seek it out, but it is all the more delectable for that. There is a parking area for half a dozen cars at the end of a mile of access lane. It runs from just east of the church in the quiet village of Skerne, 2 miles from Driffield or Cranswick. Postcode of the nearby Cleaves Farm YO25 9HU.

The access track is quite bumpy, and you might prefer to walk from the village. I have visited 3 times in recent months, there is always something new to experience.

Just to the right of the parking area with its handy information board, is a fine area of reed beds and pools, here a hide allows you to seek out the mightily impressive marsh harriers. In late March, we saw three, presumably a pair and its offspring, their wingspans are enormous.

From here, you can cross the bridge over the river, then take lovely paths to north and south. In early summer, the crystal clear waters will be full of water crowfoot. There are nice benches en route, sit, be patient, and you may well see kingfishers darting along the stream.

This is also otter country, but you will need to be there early or late in the day to see them, water voles keep more sociable hours. You can wander upstream for almost a mile, before access ends - there is even a northern section to the reserve, which can be accessed from the road at Wansford Bridge.

On my visits, I have only ever come across a couple of other visitors, it's a place of rare beauty and solitude. Go with camera, binoculars, and a picnic on a fine day, for a slice of heaven right here in the East Riding.

Ian Richardson.

A distant marsh harrier

EAST RIDING THEATRE - SOME NEWS...

East Riding Theatre wants to say a huge thank you to The Beverley Arms for sponsoring our brand new lanyards.

We've had the current lanyards since 2014 and for several reasons, including an influx of new volunteers, we found that they desperately needed replacing.

Chris and Anita (Café Bar Managers) set out on a mission to source them whilst Diane (Corporate Development & Sponsorship) approached The Beverley Arms for potential sponsorship.

The Beverley Arms has supported us over and over again since opening and we are incredibly grateful. Thank you! "The Beverley Arms is proud to support the East Riding Theatre - a local theatre in the heart of the Beverley community offering fantastic entertainment to all." - Chantell Dickinson, General Manager of The Beverley Arms.

Coming Up in June...

On Thursday 8th you have a chance to see two plays in one night by Cortona Productions: 'Lusting for Life' and 'The End Of The World As We Know It'.

Join 'The Lol Goodman Band' on Sunday 11th for some blues and rock inspired music, playing mainly original material from their five albums with a smattering of a few well known but rarer underplayed blues tunes.

Mid June ERT will be hosting an acoustic café and late night club, and welcoming 'Hannah Moule and the Moulettes' as part of the Beverley Folk Festival.

Then to finish off a fantastic month, the National Production Company will present 'The Complete Works of William Shakespeare (abridged)'.

This critically acclaimed play is an irreverent, fast paced romp through the Bard's 37 plays!

COUNTRYSIDE MATTERS WITH SAM WALTON

Press a switch and hey presto we have light, and turn a tap and we have clean water. Go to any shop for anything you want and nine times out of ten what you want is there.

Newspapers appear every day with up-to-date news and loads of other everyday articles you all either need or want are usually available without even thinking about how any of them are produced and what goes on behind the scenes.

A threshing machine before we had combines

The same of course applies to food. Farmers are probably facing more serious times now than ever before. It is not just all the red tape and ridiculous ideas we have to conform and cope with. The weather is anyone's guess these days, we seem to get rain when we don't want it and when we do need rain the sun suddenly appears.

We have no say in the price we pay for things, and it is a work of art to get the price you not only want but actually need to keep going when selling! On the better side of course, more scientific work is being carried out for both animal and crop production to keep pace with whatever affects what we do and can do.

None of this ever happened 70 years ago when I was nobbut a lad and hand labour was the norm with farmyard manure as fertiliser and hand pulling or hoeing of weeds, horses doing all the arable work and very little if any sprays and of course cows milked by hand. How quaint was all that? It does make me wonder where we are going and how we will cope with it.

CAMPING AVAILABLE

VARIETY IS THE SPICE OF LIFE

One of the most interesting and enjoyable parts of my work is putting together multi centre itineraries.

For significant birthdays and anniversaries and honeymoons I am often compiling lengthy holidays with various destinations across the globe. Increasingly though I am finding that to experience something a little different on a "regular" holiday is to do a twin centre.

It often allows you the opportunity to experience two very contrasting places and add more ticks of places to see and things to do on the never ending "bucket list" of destinations.

With the use of car transfers, trains, ferries or flights you can connect different destinations within one holiday - often working out better value than doing two separate holidays to each place. Sometimes my clients feel too much beach quiet and relaxation can get a little bit "same feel every day" - not quite monotonous but needing something more to fill their time. So a mix of city and beach, adventure/culture and relaxation, market town and tranquil lakes, two contrasting cities giving a different vibe works well for them.

Our most recent experience of this was our belated anniversary trip to Maldives & Dubai and we definitely appreciated having both destinations (as different as they are to each other) within the same holiday.

A significant part of my business is cruise and whilst a cruise will naturally allow you to visit many places I am often adding on pre and /or post tour adventures so my clients get a land based holiday combined with the wonderful experiences of the cruise. Best of both worlds and allowing the ocean liner to get you even further around the world.

Here is a bit of a list of suggestions for you to consider - some you may have experienced - some may give you inspiration and a new itinerary for you to consider. The world is your oyster and there are so many more combinations that would be possible and that is exactly why in my work I am never bored as I tailor each client's holiday to suit their requirements.
