MAY - ISSUE 100
LETTER FROM THE EDITORS

Welcome to our special issue 100, we hope you enjoy the read. Over eight years ago, issue number one of Just Beverley was published and we enjoyed talking to Andy Comfort on Radio Humberside about our first issue. What we wanted to achieve was to help to raise the profile of Beverley, with Good News, Photos, Puzzles, What's On and features from Beverley and the surrounding area.

This month we all get to enjoy the Bank Holiday weekends and the Coronation of King Charles III, a unique moment in history. Take time to enjoy the celebrations, make it a family event, and be part of the King's Community Celebrations at the Minster.

Spring is here, colours start to change and our days get longer, so take the time to enjoy what we have around us. Have a read of Josh's photo column, nature is free so take time to explore and enjoy what we have on our doorstep.

We want people to "Make it Happen", whether that be a Spring clean, change in attitude, or a message to have a catch up with a friend - use May to make it happen. As always, send in your good news, stories and pictures - we look forward to hearing from you. Happy May.

Julian.

Happy May and welcome to issue 100. Let's look forward to a great month ahead.

I love the sunshine, so May is the time I like to get out and explore, planning new places to go, new shows to watch and of course booking those holidays! This month we will get to witness a historic moment to make the Coronation of King Charles III. Where will you be watching the Coronation? How will you celebrate the day?

With extra Bank Holidays in May, we've got lots of beautiful long weekends. It allows time to discover new things in and around the area, so make the most of your Bank Holidays. Have a fantastic time and as always, stay safe and enjoy the issue.

Olivia.

100 AND COUNTING

The first 100 days of the year have been busy ones at Beverley and East Riding Golf Club.

The gents changing area has been totally refurbished with new toilets and showers, and 100 new lockers. The new Lady and Men's Captains have had their inaugural Drive-Ins. The men's event saw the clubhouse as full as it has ever been, with the 100 competitors staying for a meal and the presentations. The club is very buoyant at the moment and we've recently welcomed the 100th new member since lockdown. We're planning our next Get Into Golf Taster Sessions, which start on 11th May and we're pleased to say that 100 people have already been through these sessions. They are an excellent introduction to golf. And we are very confident that men's Captain, Ben Gardiner, will play 100 rounds this year!

PAUL CONTINUES WITH THE TRADITION

As a 15 year old boy, Paul Ruston used to pop in and help his dad's cousin, Tim in his shop, Tim's Gentlemans Hairdressers in Windmill Walk working at weekends and after school.

When the time came and Paul left school he looked no further than his relatives hairdressers to pursue a career in Gentlemen's hairdressing, working alongside Tim until the day he hung up his scissors.

Such was the faith that Tim had in Paul that he allowed Paul to run the Barbers shop and for the past 18 years Paul has done just that, and has developed a great relationship with Alex who works alongside him.

Like a lot of businesses in and around Beverley, the time comes when ownership is to be handed over, and in the next few weeks Paul will take over the business reins.

Paul said, "Having worked in the shop for the last 30 years and ran the shop for the last 18 years, I am excited to be able to have our family name above the door. It was still a big decision."

Paul decided it is time that in recognition of his family to rename the hairdressers as Forthmans Gentlemens Hairdressers.

Paul said, "Tims hairdressers have a good reputation, now I have the opportunity to continue and build on the reputation under our family name. My great uncle Roy Forth had a Gentleman's hairdressers at 37 Highgate, Beverley, which he started in the 1940's before moving to Scarborough in the 1960's. His sister Freda continued in Beverley and in the shop on Highgate until the early 1970's."

It was in the 1970's when Freda's son, Tim, started in Beverley behind Mitchell's Toy Shop on Butcher Row, which a lot of people of a certain generation will remember - "Tim's Gentlemans Hairdressers", was born.

In 1984 when the new buildings on Windmill Walk were finished Tim moved the business into one of the units, and now almost 40 years on the reins will be passed over and Paul will continue in the Barber's Shop in the family tradition with his great uncle's name above the door.

Paul said, "It will be a proud day, I look forward to continuing with his legacy".

For the future Paul will look to continue to build on good old fashioned customer service and banter, and over the generations, people, families, father's and son's have continued to come to the hairdressers for a traditional haircut and/or beard trim.

Paul mentioned, "Families have continued to walk through the door and we have always looked after them, it is a great tradition, people of Beverley tend to support each other, and we look forward to both myself and Alex continuing to deliver what we have always delivered. Good service, good haircuts and banter to go with it."

In the next few weeks Forthmans Gentlemens Hairdressers will be the name above the door.

You can make an appointment by calling 01482 861267 or as a walk in, but you may have to wait. 3 Windmill Walk, Lairgate, Beverley, HU17 8EB.

BACK TO BACK WORLD TITLES FOR MATTHEW

It is perhaps no surprise that the Cheerleading Worlds 2023 take place in the USA. This year the Championships were held between April 21-24 2023, in Orlando Florida at the ESPN Wide World of Sports Complex.

The Cheerleading Worlds began in 2004 with two divisions and has grown to include hundreds of teams in more than 30 divisions and Florida has an influx of cheerleading teams from all over the globe.

Matthew Minshall, having had to step back from football during University, was introduced to Yorkshire Cheer by Beverley's Steph Needley, who coached and managed teams in Yorkshire.

When Matthew went to work in London, Steph suggested he went to Unity to try out. Unity trains in South London, encouraging all teams to constantly strive for continued excellence no matter the skill level at which they are competing at. Unity have a great reputation for encouraging people in the sport.

Since early in 2021 Matthew has trained with the Unity team and in 2022 won the National Championships before going off to Florida where he won the World Championships.

This year they knew the competition was tough, training increased, skill difficulty increased, and in short the level went up. Being pushed all the way and leading going into the Final round, the Canadian and Australian Teams pushed them hard, so being last out in the competition Unity All Star Blacks needed to perform.

STOP PRESS

On Monday 24th April at 6.45pm Eastern Time in the USA, Unity Allstar Blacks were announced as L7 International Open Coed NT. World Champions 2023 - back to back winners.

Congratulations go out to everyone involved, it's great that a young man from Beverley is there leading the way.

Matthew commented "It's madness to think what we have achieved".

TOYS FOR TURKEY FUNDRAISER

On Sunday 16th April, 12pm to 6pm, Wednesday Market was transformed into a Turkish Market, continuing with the East Yorkshire to East Turkey - Toys for Turkiye fundraising event.

The event demonstrated what can happen when everyone works together, bringing people from many communities and truly placing Beverley on the world stage with media interest at local, regional, national, and international level.

As you entered Wednesday Market from 12pm the Turkish and British flags formed a great backdrop ready for the fun, food and entertainment to follow to keep everyone happy on a lovely Spring afternoon.

People were encouraged to bring along shoe boxes, unsealed but filled with toys for the children of Turkey who have had their lives changed.

The hope is that these boxes will create new memories and hope as they adapt to their new lives, with any donations going to the children displaced following the earthquakes.

In attendance were Mr James Dick OBE, HM Lord Lieutenant of the East Riding of Yorkshire, Tina Cerutti, High Sheriff of East Riding of Yorkshire, Osman Koray Ertas Turkish Ambassador, MP Graham Stuart, Cllr John Whittle, Chairman of the East Riding of Yorkshire Council, Linda Johnson, Mayor of Beverley, Murat Bingol, Chairman of Musiad, Mr Seyfi Onur Sayin, the Consul General of Turkiye and Ali Tekce. Everyone took time out from their busy schedule to help raise awareness and be part of this fantastic event which Ali had organised.

This was the third event 'Toys for Turkiye' following on from the East Yorkshire to East Turkiye appeals, and the event continued to show the generosity and humanity of the people of Beverley, and the wider East Yorkshire area, as well as support from other areas in a time frame of only 8 weeks.

Everyone gave their time and energy for free from individuals to businesses, and the event was opened by a Pipe Major, Mr Danny Fleming.

A variety of entertainment followed with Amelia Jackson a musical student from Hymers College, Ruth Getts a quintessential vintage singer, The Hand Song Choir, Danillie, a singer, Ray Gallagher on Accordion, a Quartet from The Humberside Police Band, and Josh with street performances.

The distinguished guests were truly humbled by the scale of the event and the previous events. It is fantastic to report that the money raised from the event was over £12,000.

Gary Jackson said, "We have collected approximately 1000 'shoe boxes' filled with toys, gifts, teddy bears, many with handwritten notes and labels from children in our area to children in Turkiye, and these boxes will be flown out in the next few days".

- GIVING HOPE FOR THE FUTURE

"We had in attendance Humberside Police, Humberside Fire and Rescue Service, and members of Lincolnshire Fire and Rescue, one of whom attended in Türkiye as part of the UK Emergency Response Team.

"We also had an ambulance with qualified staff giving their time for free throughout the day. I have not seen anything on this scale before, these events have brought positive attention to Beverley and the wider East Yorkshire area".

Graham Stuart, Member of Parliament for Beverley and Holderness, praised Ali Tekce for his wonderful Toys for Türkiye Fundraiser Event.

Graham said, "Ali Tekce is a well known entrepreneurial Beverley restaurateur and the inspirational leader of the Turkish Earthquake Appeal. Following the disastrous earthquakes in February, which caused almost 60,000 deaths and affected a staggering 14 million people, Ali secured £17,000 in cash donations and 7 truck-loads of essential goods to provide crucial aid to those devastated by the crisis in Turkey."

His Excellency Osman Koray Ertaş said, "I was heavily moved by the generosity of the people of Beverley and East Yorkshire. I am also grateful to Lord Lieutenant Mr. James Dick, High Sheriff Ms. Tina Cerutti, Minister of State and Member of Parliament Rt. Hon. Graham Stuart, Mayor of Beverley Mrs. Linda Johnson and all other dignitaries for their presence at the event and display of solidarity with our country. The assistance of Beverley and East Yorkshire to Türkiye during these trying times will never be forgotten."

Ali Tekce said, "Even in the face of adversity, there is light and goodness all around us. This is something I have learned after all the kindness people have shown from all walks of life following the earthquakes."

Karl Douglas who helped on behalf of the local Lodge said, "We raised nearly £1,000 on Sunday (cost of the teddies plus cash donations plus donation from the members of the Constitutional Lodge No 294) - that is without the auction funds and Ali raised 'selling' teddies at the end (another £5-600). We hope we may be able to get some matched funding from Provincial Lodge charity funds and also donations from other lodges, we hope to top £2,000!"

The Grand Lodge had already donated a total of £60,000, donated to the Turkey and Syria Earthquake relief effort, with £20,000 each going to the UK for UNHCR, British Red Cross and Unicef.

Fundraisers: from Constitutional Lodge - Martin Rowland and Karl Douglas (Beverley Travel), Diera 329 (Ladies Lodge) - Theresa Rowland collectively mentioned that Sunday 16th April was a special Day and confirmed how working together can help so many people.

"A picture is worth a thousand words". Everyone involved helped to change families' lives. Children's lives and give hope for the future.

I'VE BEEN THINKING... SAYS COLIN RAYNOR

You don't need me to tell you that on Saturday May 6th an historical event will take place in London for which millions of people throughout the world, have been patiently waiting.

This will be the first actual Coronation many people have ever seen but many will have listened to the memories of their family who have told them, time and again, where they were and what they did on that special day of Tuesday June 2nd 1953.

The Coronation of Queen Elizabeth 2nd was the first Coronation of course to be televised (in black and white then) and there were some who stated it was the wrong thing to do but common sense prevailed and we can only imagine the excitement when the waiting was over and the great day arrived. Television was in our homes and it was worth waiting for.

It is a fact of life I suggest that as human beings we spend a lot of our time just waiting and some of us are better at it than others. The British willingness to stand patiently in a queue is not replicated in many other countries, but we know this is only short term waiting.

Many of you will know of young people who have recently waited anxiously for their examination results to come through in the knowledge that they have to do it all over again in the next few weeks. Waiting to see if their hopes and dreams of what they want to do with their lives are going to be possible. Family members can also feel stress as they wonder what the future holds.

At times the period of waiting can be clearly defined. A pregnancy for example will stretch over nine months, or less. This can be a very anxious time for the mother (and lots of other people) even though she may have given birth more than once. Miracles always take their time.

I recently had an examination for a medical condition and was told I would get the results in 'ten days time'. At first I welcomed the fact that I had been given a specific period of time. But then doubt crept in. Did that mean ten working days, excluding weekends? My mind was so concentrated on the impending results I'm pretty sure I became irritable to my loved ones. I realised that I had not been told how I would get these results; by letter; by telephone; by email or by carrier pigeon! I confess I don't recall how I did get those results eventually and resumed what I thought of as my calm sensible self.

So waiting and time are very strange matters. Try as we might we cannot alter them no more than King Canute could stop the tide wetting his royal robes.

May 6th will be just another day of twenty four hours but I'm sure it will be a day we will remember for many reasons. Many of them related to the Coronation of King Charles who, with Camilla by his side as Queen Consort, will reign we hope and pray for many years to come.

Let us also remember those less privileged throughout the world who do not have the 'luxury' of waiting for the good times to return. Their personal lives and their home lives are in turmoil to such an extent they do not know which way to turn.

Let's be available to offer help whenever, and wherever we can, to all who constantly wait for happier times ahead.

IN THE PICTURE WITH JOSH

At this time of year there is a lot to see in East Yorkshire. I always enjoy an early morning walk along the River Hull.

As well as the beautiful morning light, there is a huge variety of wildlife to see such as Barn Owls, Roe Deer and maybe even an Otter if you're lucky.

You can normally hear the chirp of a Kingfisher flying past or the sounds of a Tawny Owl in the trees. For a better chance of getting some great close ups I also enjoy visiting Tophill Low Nature reserve. Located on the River Hull between Beverley and Driffild there is a range of hides for bird watching and photography.

Out towards the coast at RSPB Bempton Cliffs, you'll be able to watch the Gannets collecting nesting material from the cliff tops and see the Puffins and other sea birds gliding on the breeze as they come in to land.

If the wind is blowing from the right direction, they will hover right in front of you, making them much easier to photograph!

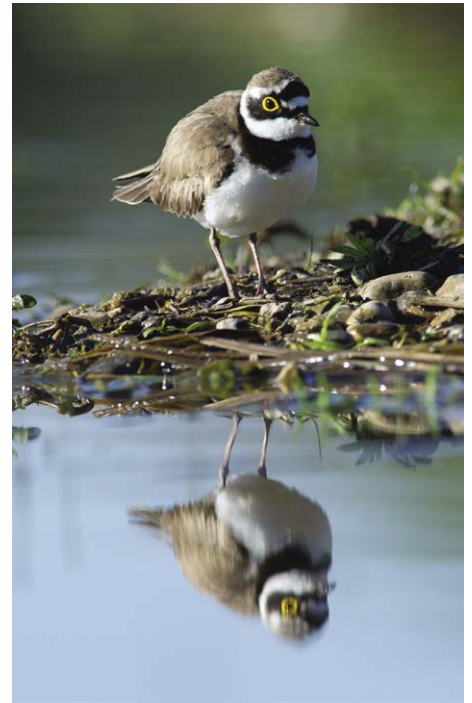

With any luck, Albie, the Black-Browed Albatross may also return for another year. The landscapes of East Yorkshire and the Wolds also provide plenty of photo opportunities this time of year. The countless yellow fields of Rapeseed break up the green landscape and look stunning in the sunlight.

The trees are also starting to blossom, and a great place to see them is in Huggate where one of the walks intersects the driveway of Northfield Lodge. The drive is lined with a tunnel of Cherry trees.

DARTS CHARITY CHALLENGE AT THE DURHAM OX IN AID OF MIND

Karl Hornsey and Jake Penn will be taking on a Charity Challenge which will test their endurance and mental aptitude to raise money for Mind.

On Sunday 28th May, Karl and Jake will take on a Darts Challenge staged at the Durham Ox pub on Norwood in Beverley. They are aiming to score 180,000 points in one session of darts to raise money for a fantastic cause that will help so many people with their mental health.

Karl said, "Given our ability at the oche, we think this will take us around 12-15 hours non-stop, depending on how we manage to fit in some eating, drinking and 'comfort breaks', as well as how our throwing arms hold up on the day".

Karl commented, "We would love people to pop in and support us in our challenge and for people to spread the word about the event, so we can raise as much money as possible".

Karl and Jake have set up a JustGiving page at www.justgiving.com/page/karl-hornsey-1679347954778 if you can support them in any way they would be delighted.

LEAVE A THOUGHTFUL LEGACY

There are few more confusing - or unpopular - taxes than Inheritance Tax (IHT). If you're unsure of the details, or you'd like more of your inheritance to go to your family and less to the taxman or on care fees, we can help.

Leaving loved ones to incur up to a 40% reduction due to tax on their inheritance is a hard ask. Yet despite many children and grandchildren being ill-equipped to grapple with IHT, more and more families are having to deal with it.

It's a situation that is set to continue, with the Office of Budget Responsibility forecasting that IHT revenues will reach £8.4 billion by 2026/2027.

In better news for your family, there's been a staged increase in the residence nil-rate band threshold, which is now set at £175,000 for those who qualify when passing their main residence to direct lineal dependents. This goes some way to reflect surges in property prices, as well as other asset values recovering, which together have dragged more households into the IHT net.

Nevertheless, it can come as a shock to discover that a large proportion of your wealth, which includes the family home, investments such as Individual Savings Accounts (ISAs), life assurance plans not in trust and even old family heirlooms, might have to be sold to meet tax bills when you die.

Get in the know

So what exactly could your family be liable for? We've already discussed the residence nil-rate band threshold of £175,000. Then you can factor in that the first £325,000 of your estate is likely to be exempt from IHT. This means that, subject to various conditions, if you're married or in a civil partnership, you could have a tax-free estate worth £1,000,000.

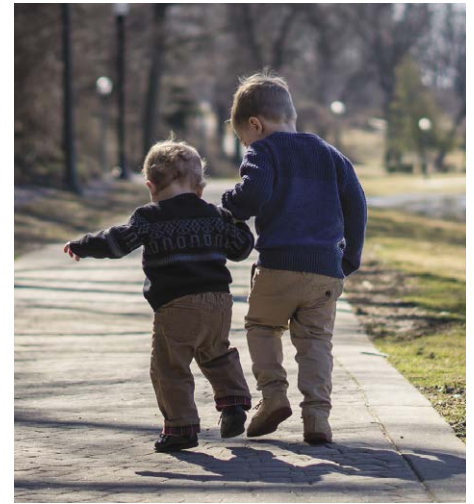

Yet the simple fact is that IHT could be considered a voluntary tax. The Treasury relies on our inertia and reluctance to confront the issues of death and inheritance. To make things worse, the Treasury's coffers are boosted at the exact time your loved ones least need the added hassle.

Help your family now

There are many perfectly legitimate ways to mitigate IHT through foresight and careful financial planning. You don't need high-powered tax planning, just a willingness to discuss the issue, act and make use of the many options available. These include establishing trusts (they won't be regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority) and making use of annual exemptions such as gifting.

Bear in mind that if you're domiciled, or resident, in the UK, IHT rules are complex.

Certain transfers are deemed exempt from the tax if they pass between a husband and wife or civil partners.

The levels and bases of taxation, and reliefs from taxation, can change at any time. The value of any tax relief depends on individual circumstances.

Trusts are not regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority.

Get in touch

If you're after a little help to guide you through the IHT maze, give us a call. We're here to make a difference to your family's future.

Live for today, plan for tomorrow

You probably know where you want your inheritance to go when you die. But making sure your legacy gets to the right people at the right time can be hard work. There's a lot to think about, from clearly documenting your intentions to making the most of gifting allowances and pinpointing legitimate ways to mitigate Inheritance Tax.

We offer a friendly, local service, backed by the strength and security of FTSE 100 company St. James's Place Wealth Management. Let us guide you through the estate planning maze and make sure your inheritance plans come good.

LEON INSPIRES THROUGH HISTORY

Every year between April and September excavations take place at Fort Vindolanda in Northumberland. One of Beverley's residents took time out to fulfil an ambition of his and take the opportunity to excavate at the site.

Vindolanda was a Roman auxiliary fort "Castrum", in the north of England just South of Hadrian's Wall. It is understood that it was under Roman occupation from approximately 85 AD to 370 AD.

Leon, who has an interest in Roman history, visited the Vindolanda Fort, which is a world heritage site, in 2018.

Leon became aware that excavations take place between April and September, so he decided one day he would excavate on the site. He knew that places are limited at Vindolanda and highly sought after to excavate under expert supervision of the resident archaeologist.

Towards the end of 2022 Leon received the news that he had secured his place but the news was just the start of his journey.

By December 2022 Leon's application to dig at Vindolanda had been accepted, he read through all the documentation. His heart sank with the sentence. "You need to demonstrate that you are physically able to carry out the required work"!!!!

Leon, at 80+ years old, had not carried out any form of exercise for 40 years. Undeterred, but with the backing of his family, Leon's journey began.

Leon sought the help of Beverley's Oliver Johnston who has a good reputation in personal fitness, helping people of all ages to fulfill their ambition and targets. Oliver knew what he was taking on...

Oliver said, "You are never too old to start to do exercise, to adopt a healthier lifestyle, you just need to have a positive attitude and be consistent".

Oli went on to say, "Leon's mindset was incredible. He was open minded and positive, and he told me what he needed to do to achieve a level of fitness to do two weeks of work of digging at Vindolanda. We had 4 months to get him prepared, Leon attended every session and took it all in his stride.

"He did what he was able to do with excitement and determination, and as an 80+ year old gentleman, to see him push himself safely and with a smile was fantastic, an inspiration to all of us, not just the older generation."

Leon said, "Through a regime of walking, pilates, bending and stretching 4 to 5 hours a week, and a programme which was achievable and fun, I knew I could achieve my ambition".

The bottom of a Roman soldier's knife sheath

On Sunday 16th April at 10am, Leon headed north - "Vindolanda Fort here I come."

Leon worked on an area of the site excavating in the south western quadrant - a stone fort.

During a dig in 2022, a round house constructed of stone was exposed. This was unusual as the Romans never built round houses, it was usually the British or Celts that built round houses but usually of timber construction. This area of the site held specific interest and captured Leon's imagination, resulting in many hours of research prior to going up to Vinolanda.

Leon is a credit and inspiration, and sends a message to everyone, "if you put your mind, heart and soul into it, you can fulfil your dreams."

NORTHMEN SPIRIT - IT'S ALL IN THE STORY!

Many congratulations to the Just Beverley team for reaching the amazing milestone of one hundred issues, we look forward to the next hundred issues of this fabulous publication as they continue to tell the heart-warming and uplifting stories of the folk in and around Beverley.

At Northmen Spirit we're continually looking for new breweries, distilleries and other producers across Yorkshire and the North to bring to you in our Bottleshop and from behind our Bar.

For us it's not just about finding quality products, it's also about the story behind the product. We love learning all about our suppliers, their products and how they started their business, this allows us to really understand them and what they are trying to do.

This is what sets apart the local independent businesses we work with at Northmen Spirit and BAR SEVEN93 and we love telling you all about them, especially when we have that drink in hand.

From the Rum Distiller who hand built their own still to the Ginger Beer brewer who uses their Grandmothers recipe.

The Gin Distiller who discovered their new premises was fed by a fresh water spring and the local Vineyard who are launching a sparkling wine later this year.

From the Northernmost Distillery in the world to the blueberries unwanted by the big grocers.

We all love a good story and sharing them with others adds a little something extra to our enjoyment of the product, at Northmen Spirit we're delighted to bring you the finest Beer, Spirits and Wine from Yorkshire and the North.

We look forward to sharing a few stories with you during the month of May, whether in the Bottleshop or Bar and we hope you enjoy them as much as we do.

Craft beer has become increasingly popular in recent years, and for good reason. This type of beer is typically made by smaller, independent breweries that focus on creating unique, high-quality brews with distinct flavours and aromas. A craft beer bar is the perfect place to experience the best that the craft beer world has to offer.

At BAR SEVEN93, you can expect to find a wide variety of beers on tap, each with its own unique flavour profile. Many craft breweries specialise in creating bold, complex flavours that you simply can't find in mass-produced beers. Whether you prefer light and crisp pilsners or dark and malty stouts, there is a craft beer out there that is sure to delight your taste buds.

With eight keg lines behind our Bar and a great selection of local wine and spirits there is sure to be something for everyone.

If you're looking for a unique and memorable beer-drinking experience, BAR SEVEN93 is the perfect destination. www.northmenspirit.co.uk

LOCAL ELECTIONS 2023

The list of candidates nominated for the local, town and parish council elections on Thursday, 4 May has been published.

The list of all candidates can be found on East Riding of Yorkshire Council's website - www.eastriding.gov.uk/elections

But voters should not worry if, for whatever reason, they don't have a poll card as they do not need one in order to vote.

While poll cards are not needed, this year, those who are eligible and wish to vote in person at a polling station will need to show an accepted form of photo ID before being issued with a ballot paper.

A list of acceptable photo identification can include:

- UK, European Economic Area (EEA) or Commonwealth passport
- UK or EEA photo driving licence
- an older person's bus pass or a disabled person's bus pass
- blue badge.

The full list of approved photo identification can be found on the Electoral Commission website: www.electoralcommission.org.uk/voterID

CONGRATULATIONS ON YOUR 100TH EDITION

It seems like only yesterday that Just Beverley issue No 1 was published and the 4 years I spent working on it (issues 9-57) just flew by.

It didn't seem like work because the whole ethos of Just Beverley is to celebrate everything good about this wonderful town - and there is so much to celebrate!

I interviewed some very interesting people including soul singer P. P. Arnold; the late, great Janet Prince who will forever be my Miss Haversham; Christians legend Henry Priestman and his current musical partner, Les Glover; internationally-renown pianist Libby Burgess and Beverley Honorary Freeman Roland Deller of New Paths Festival and I hope the resulting articles and pictures whetted your appetite for the incredible cultural diversity on offer. And that doesn't include all the sport, shopping, hospitality and religious activities!

Beverley is blessed with beautiful buildings and inspirational people and there was so much to write about that articles often had to be binned - they certainly had to be trimmed!

Just Beverley is the only magazine which features purely good news and here's to the next 100 issues packed full of positivity. Keep up the good work, Julian!

FROM ME TO YOU, ROSES OF BEVERLEY

Way back in 2000 in response to a cry of "Help", Ken Rose setup Roses of Beverley with a specific aim to focus on exceptional customer service in delivering bespoke kitchens to customers in East Yorkshire.

Over the past 23 years the business has continued to grow with modern showroom design, exhibitions and installations, followed up with unprecedented after-care and an exceptionally high standard of service.

It can be said whatever the problem, Roses answer will be "We Can Work It Out".

So what's next? Roses go to great lengths to maintain their customer satisfaction and high standards.

Doing things right makes everyone happy and at Roses the pre-installation area, an area where kitchens are assembled prior to being delivered to the customer, is going through a change.

Roses are looking to deliver the same experience in their factory as you would have in your home, so when customers say "Please, Please Me", Roses can do the pre installation and post installation to an excellent standard.

Roses' new business has mainly been through customer recommendations and repeat business from clients who have moved house.

Roses are now up to something new, so with the usual excellent showroom, expanded pre-installation and site fit-out, Roses project management will grow.

Watch this space to see what Roses will be doing next and remember when you visit Roses you will leave saying "Got To Get You Into My Life" and enjoy the experience of having a Roses Kitchen.

FANTASTIC FILMS AND WHERE TO FIND THEM

This might be the hundredth issue of Just Beverley, but don't worry, this column won't be about 100-year-old films (although you can find a few silent gems out there). Instead, we keep it simple this month and look for some hidden gems you may have overlooked that can currently be found on some popular streaming services.

"If the butterflies in my stomach were cows, I'd be able to start a dairy farm."

The World's Fastest Indian (available on ITVX - free with ads) is a mundane title that turns out to be entirely appropriate, for a delightful film. The legend that is Anthony Hopkins plays a real-life New Zealander legend, Burt Munro, a retiree who during the 1960s restored the Indian motorbike of the title

Seen by his exasperated neighbours as an eccentric who doesn't mow his lawn and revs his machine in the early morning, Burt harbours the dream of speed testing his motorcycle, complete with his own makeshift modifications at the Bonneville Salt Flats in Utah. Despite medical advice to stop riding his bike, he saves enough money to travel to the United States, partly by working his passage as a cook on a cargo ship.

As Burt finally reaches America, he faces bureaucracy, scepticism and indifference, but his fish-out-of-water charm, down-to-Earth nature and determination lead him to find many helpful people from all walks of American society who assist him. If you don't know Munro's place in motorsport history, it would be a shame to spoil the quirky tale that unfolds but, suffice to say, you will be cheering this unlikely hero in the film's finale. As they say, it is not just the destination but the journey travelled and The World's Fastest Indian is one of those films where you can't resist a grin on your face throughout.

"I guess you followed me. It's one of those infinite time loop situations you might have heard about."

After writing about Rom-Coms a few months back, I was kicking myself that I missed out on the wee jewel that is Palm Springs (available on Amazon Prime video). Although it has echoes of "Groundhog Day" this has its own spin, charm and humour. In fact, the filmmakers lean into the fact, we have seen these time loop shenanigans before.

Starring Andy Samberg (best known here for TV's "Brooklyn 99") as Nyles who appears as a guest at a Palm Springs wedding acting unusually and wearing beach wear rather than formally dressed. Nyles rescues the bride's sister Sarah (the black sheep of the family) from further torment after an embarrassing turn and both take a walk into the desert. However, Nyles is attacked by a strange man and upon finding a small cave, Nyles strangely asks Sarah not to follow him into the tunnel. Of course, she does and she ends up joining him in reliving the wedding day again which he has been doing for some time.

The chemistry between Cristin Milioti (who plays Sarah) and Samberg really sparks with humour as the two take different routes to try to solve the predicament in which they both find themselves. Of course, romance is not far away and each day brings a new revelation about their situation and the wedding in which they are forever participating. Even with quantum physics featuring Palm Springs is light, frothy and a great deal of fun. I am a sucker for a good action film although the millennium saw CGI tending to neuter excitement usually generated by skilled stuntmen and actors doing things which leave you breathless. However, the recent John Wick films have reversed this trend along with our last two selections (well three actually).

"You did the right thing. I don't blame you."

I have previously mentioned my admiration for Dan Stevens in this column as he strikes me as a chameleon actor who can shine in a variety of roles. Indeed, without him providing a central charismatic performance as David in The Guest (available on ITVX - free with ads) would be a great film, but he makes it riveting.

The first half of the film is quite Hitchcockian with the arrival of a charming young man at the front door of a grieving family. He claims to be a close comrade of their son who was been killed while serving in the army. Although seeming to grudgingly accept the hospitality of the family, David soon inveigles himself by helping family members in a very unique way such as the younger brother's bullying problem.

However, when the father of the house receives a long-awaited promotion after the suspicious death of his superior, the wary daughter believes this could confirm her concerns that David is not all he seems.

Further elaboration would spoil the twists, turns and thrills that are about to transpire. With his choice of music, imaginative plotting, interesting characters and his eye for framing, director Adam Wingard captures the vibe of eighties-era action movies. Perhaps unsurprisingly he cites legendary director John Carpenter as one of his key influences.

It would be remiss of me not to mention Lance Reddick who plays a small but pivotal role in the film. Reddick recently passed away and The Guest does show why he was a sought-after character in Film and TV such as The Wire, Fringe and all of the John Wick films.

"No... I'm done."

For the wild card this month, you have not one but two extraordinary action films with The Raid and The Raid 2 (both available on Netflix). Even though the films are set in Indonesia and in that country's language, they are written, edited and directed by a Welshman, Gareth Evans who is assisted with breathtaking action choreography by the star of both films, Iko Uwais.

Originally, Evans wanted to make a film based on the events that take place in the second film but could not raise the budget to realise his ambitious tale. So he created a paired-down story set in one location (a tower block in the slums of Jakarta) which still had action and drama but met the money available. The Raid follows an elite police team's mission to capture a ruthless mobster which goes awry when they are discovered between floors by a gang of killers and thugs. Including family man, Rama (played by Uwais), the squad's only choices for survival is to fight their way out or go up to topple the crime boss. Either way, it is the start of a bloody visceral journey which will reveal corruption and hidden loyalties.

The success of the first film meant that Evans and Uwais could release their initial ambitions and The Raid 2 follows on from the repercussions of the first film's events seeing Rama going deep undercover to incriminate the top of the crime syndicate. The sequel expands its action (there is a jaw-dropping car chase) and locations in an epic tale of jealousy, betrayal and deceit among the crime families of the city.

Many modern-age films hid the limitations of their performers through quick editing but, the actors in both Raid films are skilled in the Indonesian martial art, Pencak Silat, which makes for some of the most exciting close-quarters action set pieces of recent years. Both films are very, very violent (and had me exclaiming loudly on more than one occasion even on repeated viewings) but if you like exciting actioners, don't let the subtitles put you off.

BROOK TAVERNER - FOUR YEARS IN BEVERLEY

Brook Taverner opened its doors in Beverley back in June 2019 with Lee Wardell, a local Beverley gentleman at the helm.

Lee brought his unique style and experience to the store and welcoming customers to appreciate the Brook Taverner quality, style and service. It will always be noted in the Brook Taverner records that the Beverley store was the first store they opened in England and has continued to be successful under the watchful eye of Lee. As Brook Taverner looks forward to their 4th birthday in Beverley, we thought it was time to ask Lee a unique set of questions so we understand more about him and the business he represents. We open up with eleven questions to Lee (a number that he resonates with).

Q1 - What is most important to you - in work or away from work?

I hold my health, family, friends and career all in equal importance. They are important in achieving a contented lifestyle which I strive for.

Q2 - How do you relax?

Relaxation to me is exercise to maintain good health. I do enjoy a glass of red wine in good company and that usually gets the job done.

Q3 - In entertainment, arts, music, film or sport who has influenced you most?

I enjoy a good eclectic mix of entertainment, not sure if influence is the right word, however Lance Armstrong duped me!

Q4 - What impression would you like people to have when they visit Brook Taverner?

First impressions are important and we strive in Beverley to offer a well merchandised store with a warm relaxed welcome from my experienced team who strive to pass on the product knowledge and expertise they have learnt.

Q5 - What is your mantra in life?

I strive for a contented life, which is a simple outlook and follow DESIDERATA as a guide - The last line "Strive to be happy/content".

Q6 - Do you have a bucket list? What is on your to-do list this year and in the near future?

No real bucket list, definitely filling my life with experiences, including cycling in the Alps and visiting friends near and far as a to do list.

Q7 - You like a challenge, but are you competitive? What was your toughest ## challenge, and what challenges do you have ahead of you?

I am not competitive as a person, however I relish a challenge. Riding in the Alps and completing 2 stages of the Tour De France in 2005/2006 was tough, I look forward to taking this on again as this year's big challenge.

Q8 - Is image important to you? If so, why?

Yes, being in menswear and retail all my working life, personal presentation and image are important and this follows through to other aspects of my life, I like good brand image and design.

Q9 - Who do you look up to?

I very much respect my elders and enjoy the wisdom and life experiences they have had.

Q10 - How important is the shop window?

The shop windows are the number one salesperson for a business. They should set up the first and best impression, "working the glass", is an old fashioned jewellers term and I follow this being aware who is looking in your window and engaging with them.

Q11 - Why eleven?

Lucky number!! Two very good friends have the same birth number as did my grandad, three very big influencers in my life.

THIERRY ANSWERS 23 QUESTIONS

Each month we will put 23 questions to people around Beverley to find out what they are like, in work, out of work aims and ambitions.

For our 100th publication we put 23 questions to the owner of TC Patisserie, Thierry Condette. Look forward to some tasty answers!!

Q1 - When did you discover your interest in cooking/baking?

When I was 10/12, I knew I wanted to be a chef and went to university of chef at the age of 14.

Q2 - Where did you grow up and why did you decide to come to Beverley and open your business?

I grew up in Boulogne Sur Mer, in the north of France. I met Nicky, my wife whilst working in France, then we decided to come back to Beverley, where Nicky is from and after 7 years living here, we started the patisserie on Saturday Market.

Q3 - When was your biggest adrenaline rush?

When France won the World Cup!!

Q4 - What do you do to relax?

I like to play petanque.

Q5 - Who are you closest to now and when you were growing up?

Family and friends both in France and England, unfortunately, I have lost 3 of the closest people over the years.

Q6 - What would be your perfect day?

Spending time with my family and playing petanque.

Q7 - What are you most thankful for?

Thankful for knowing the people that I have lost and the people in my life now.

Q11 - What do you think about when you are by yourself? What do you miss about France?

I always think about how I can be a better person and over think conversations and things that might bother me. I miss my family in France, we speak on the phone at least once or twice a week.

Q12 - Do you judge a book by its cover?

No, but I feel a lot of people do of me!!

Q13 - What's your favourite all-time movie and why?

It's difficult to choose just one, from my youth I loved The Breakfast Club and I also like The Usual Suspects, because it's quite psychological... don't judge a book by its cover!

Q14 - What would you do differently if you had your time again?

Take more time for the people I've lost. And learn English at school!

Q15 - What would you change in Beverley and why?

Beverley is a beautiful town, I love it here, but I'd love it more if the town centre was just for small businesses, like in Le Touquet, near where I lived in France. All big companies are outside of the town centre.

Q16 - What was your most memorable birthday?

My 40th birthday, when my family came over from France for a surprise party, I didn't have a clue, even the boys kept it quiet!!

Q17 - What's your favourite drink, alcoholic or non-alcoholic?

Coffee most of the time, but I like the occasional Ricard too!!

Q18 - What's your biggest achievement - sporting, hobby or past-time?

Bringing up my 3 boys and seeing how they are growing into wonderful young men.

Q19 - How would you describe yourself in one sentence?

Nightmare!! Oh no, that's what Nicky says!! I would say, I'm a perfectionist!

Q20 - Favourite meal, at home or restaurant? Do you prefer brown sauce or red sauce? Do you cook at home?

I don't cook at home, it's mustard or mayo for me and my favourite meal is kippers, boiled potatoes with butter and a cup of coffee! Food is memories.

Q21 - Do you check the door is locked once or go back and check again?

Just once! I then sit down and the settee makes me sleep!!

Q22 - Favourite band and best concert you have been to?

Growing up my favourite band was Motley Crue, but I love Linkin Park and Foo Fighters too and have seen both in concert. Both were amazing, but Linkin Park topped it!

Q23 - Your favourite, chair, slippers, shoes - past or present and why?

I don't have any favourite shoes, slippers or chairs, I can sit anywhere and fall asleep!

LOCAL WOODLAND WALKS

'Cherish the woodland it affects every aspect of life' - (Sir David Attenborough.)

Spring is the perfect time for a woodland stroll. Sadly, the East Riding, being so extensively farmed, does not have that many wooded areas.

Here, however, I offer three short walks close to Beverley, where you can enjoy the sights, sounds and smells of local woods in spring. I also suggest two woods to savour elsewhere in the county.

Each give us a real sense of seclusion, and a good chance of encountering wildlife; with the added bonus of carpets of spring flowers, notably the ever-popular bluebells.

The jewel in the crown of our local woods, is undoubtedly Burton Bushes at the top of the Westwood. An ancient wood with a wide range of mature trees, notably, commanding oaks. The bluebells that bloom profusely from mid-April, are amongst the finest you'll find anywhere.

You can really wander here, the main paths are clear, many narrower ones involve picking your way through undergrowth.

The woods are full of birdlife, such as green woodpeckers and blue tits. On one recent occasion, I was thrilled as a red deer rushed right by me. There are even the remains of an ancient settlement.

The first bluebells had bloomed in the early days of April, with other colour provided by daffodils and the lovely wood anemone. 30 acres of paradise on our doorstep, with many entry gates close to the racecourse.

Even nearer the town are the woods in Newbegin Pits, which can easily be reached by strolling up from the town centre.

Although not as thickly wooded as the Bushes, they are delightful in Spring, with many open grassy areas for picnics on the warmer days ahead.

The rolling paths are very attractive. In wet weather, the spring that feeds Beverley Beck can be seen spouting out of the ground. Kestrels hunt here, now joined by red kites that have recently migrated east from the Wolds. Storkhill Wood is relatively new, dating only from 2004. The local landowner then made a commendable decision to develop a mixed broadleaf wood, with oaks, maples and wild cherry.

Already the results are impressive, with attractive paths going through dense canopies, with very attractive ponds. As accessing the wood involves a half mile walk from a road, it is rarely visited. I usually have it entirely to myself.

To reach it, walk up the left bank of the River Hull, across the bridge from the Crown and Anchor pub, parking is possible on both sides of the river at Hull Bridge.

Further afield across the East Riding, there are the popular woods at Millington and Houghton Moor, near Newbald. Two lesser known ones which are a joy to visit in Spring, are at North Cliffe and Pocklington.

The wood at the latter is reached by a steep path from the northern edge of town, with lovely views.

Heading west you pass through almost a mile of attractive woods, heady with the aroma of wild garlic when I last visited in late March.

You can easily walk back to town along the path beside the quiet road known as the Mile.

North Cliffe Woods, 3 miles south of Market Weighton at YO434XE, are a revelation, especially during May when the bluebells are quite breathtaking.

So, do seek out our precious woods this Spring, great for mind, body and soul.

Congratulations to Julian, and all those involved with producing Just Beverley, which this month reaches its centenary.

It has been my great pleasure and privilege to have contributed some 60 articles on local walks and heritage, over the past 7 years.

A great Beverley institution, long may it flourish!

BREATHING NEW LIFE INTO AN OLD PROPERTY: A STUNNING RENOVATION STORY

When done right, a renovation can transform a house or apartment into a stunning, living space. We were approached for help on a property which had raised a family, served its purpose and was ready to move on as the owner had gone into care and the property needed a little TLC.

The kitchen before

We helped the seller achieve financially more money, opened up the market available to families instead of just investors and became their main contact.

The main concern for the owner was to see the property just being ripped apart of all its original features that gave its character. Our aim from the beginning was to keep as many striking original features as possible while maximising space with our end user being a family with young children.

The kitchen after

The kitchen was completely updated and the upstairs bathroom was redesigned to make it a useable space.

As for the rest of the house check out the pictures to see...

Overall, this property renovation is a stunning example of how an outdated property can be transformed into a beautiful, modern living space making it easier to sell but in the way that the owner wanted it to be.

The attention to detail, commitment to quality materials, and dedication to creating a comfortable and inviting environment truly paid off. resulting in a beautiful property that will now thanks to us, be enjoyed for another generation for many years to come.

PARKRUN - IT'S A FAMILY, EVERYONE BENEFITS PHYSICALLY AND MENTALLY

Beverley Westwood parkrun started on 13th July 2019. Since then 5,450 participants have completed 26,031 parkruns covering a total distance of 130,155 km (8,875 miles) and 484 individuals have volunteered 4,219 times.

As well as improved fitness for participants, whether you run, walk or volunteer, regular participation brings a lot of pleasure, enjoyment and happiness, a sense of identity, connection with the community and enduring friendships.

The feelgood atmosphere at the start continues as participants run or walk the scenic course on Beverley Westwood cheered on by enthusiastic marshals and is especially evident at the finish when everyone feels a great sense of satisfaction at their achievement.

All of this brings significant benefits to physical and mental health. Local doctors recognise this and several GP practices have partnered with us as part of the parkrun practice initiative.

They prescribe parkrun to their patients as a simple way to tackle a number of physical and mental health conditions. parkrun is also proving to be beneficial to cancer patients. A group from 5k Your Way, Move Against Cancer come to parkrun on the last Saturday of the month to support and encourage each other to stay active during and after treatment.

Like everyone else they can choose to run or walk and get the family to join them. It's free, it's local, it's inclusive, everyone takes part at their own pace and everyone benefits physically and mentally.

HOUSE OF BEVS LAUNCH NEW TIKI MENU

The HOBs team have created some bespoke drinks for their new Tiki menu and they pack a punch of flavours!

Tiki drinks are typically elaborate drinks that come with aesthetic garnishes and often flames in the form of passion fruits on fire or cinnamon sprinkled under a blow torch creating rapid flashes of fire. These drinks are defined by their tiki culture décor which is based upon a romanticized conception of tropical cultures.

A HOBs spokesperson said, "I think this new menu launch will most definitely deliver cocktails that Beverley has not ever seen anything like before. The classic tiki drinks all have a very interesting history, so the menu brings an element of education."

The menu will be available from May onwards, moving into the summer time. For more information visit: www.facebook.com/hobsbeverley

SALT REVIVE SET TO TAKE THEIR AWARD WINNING SALT THERAPY TREATMENT ON THE ROAD!

Salt Revive, the salt therapy health centre in Beverley, opened in 2018 after co-founder Clare dramatically improved her own lung health using salt therapy.

Specialising in helping adults and children suffering from respiratory and skin conditions, they have gone from strength to strength and were even recently awarded 'Best Salt Therapy Provider in the UK' by Global Health & Pharma!

They have just announced that they can now bring the 100% natural, immune boosting treatment to you.

Just before Covid they had a number of visitors from local care homes visit them and all their feedback was 'We love salt therapy and have really felt the benefits of it, but with the issue of travel and getting to you and having to take carers out of the home, it's difficult. We wish you could come to us.'

So after many trials and tests, they have managed to replicate their high standard of treatment and can now bring salt therapy to you.

They have already run sessions and received great feedback from care home residents, so if you know someone in a care home who might benefit from this, or would like to book a private group session, get in touch with Salt Revive today on 01482 679453.

COUNTRYSIDE MATTERS WITH SAM WALTON

The longer I live, the more I find how nature keeps the world going. Year after year, all types of flowers and unfortunately weeds, keep appearing and I do wonder why and how.

What made me think of that was the appearance of several daffodil plants in the back paddock which is continually grazed by horses. I certainly have not set them, so it remains a mystery.

Similarly, in and on the tops of some ditches too there are a variety of different flowers flaunting their wares and in our Churchyard at Lockington, each year a huge area of snow drops manage to poke their way up through all the leaves dropped by the row of trees above them.

If it were only flowers which did that, I would be delighted but some awful plants called WEEDS re-appear with vengeance year after, despite being sprayed off the previous year. They cost quite a lot to control and if they are not got rid of, they come back even stronger the next year.

Some people might wonder why that matters but it matters greatly as any weed population in any agricultural crop will reduce the yield considerably and anything which affects a farmer's pocket as I am sure most of you know, does not exactly put us all in a good mood and particularly now as we see retail prices shooting up on all the input costs we have for whatever crops we grow and try to remember that farmers buy all their inputs at retail and sell everything at wholesale and very difficult to have much say in either! I know, moaning farmer!

LET'S CELEBRATE... IN THE GARDEN!

In this month's issue we have a 'double' celebration taking place, it is the 100th issue of 'Just Beverley' and the coronation of King Charles III.

Flowers and plants have long been given as gifts for all kinds of celebrations and life events. There is a flower for each wedding anniversary year, and there must be a rose for every conceivable life event... and yes there is a 'King Charles Coronation Rose.' The 'King Charles Coronation' rose is a floribunda rose (clusters of flowers), it has pale pink flowers with ruffled edges and a light fragrance.

With three 'Bank holidays' in May, I am sure some of us will endeavour to have a barbeque or relaxing in the garden with friends and family, weather permitting of course!! There will be plenty of blossom in the gardens and there will still be some spring flowering bulbs to add brightness. If you are not entertaining, then below is a list of tasks to keep you busy.

Tasks for May

- Be ready to protect plants against sudden frosts.
- Water all new plantings if weather is dry and windy.
- Trim spring-flowering perennials
- Support soft stemmed or tall perennials - stake them from the early stages of growth.
- Finish pruning spring-flowering shrubs e.g., Forsythia and Kerria.
- Tidy up the foliage of spring bulbs and mark where they are in the garden. Divide daffodil bulbs and replant if they are starting to produce less flowers, this is a sign they are becoming crowded.
- Plant up hanging baskets and patio pots with summer bedding but harden off in a sheltered spot.
- Keep on top of pests and weeds - including slugs!
- Trim hedges and topiary and then feed them.
- Keep sowing vegetables out of doors.
- Continue to sow tender vegetables under cover.
- Check greenhouse ventilation and provide shading if necessary.
- Continue pruning trained plums and cherries.
- Mulch strawberries with straw or mulch mats.
- Cut lawns weekly and blitz lawn weeds.
- Remove duckweed and blanket weed from ponds.
- If you have an established pond divide aquatic plants.

Enjoy your May, celebrating...in the garden! Jane Dale.

BEVERLEY FOLK FESTIVAL ANNOUNCES 2023 PROGRAMME!

Beverley Folk Festival returns once again in 2023, over the weekend of 16-18th June.

With a star-studded lineup of the best of national and local acoustic, folk and Americana acts, it proves to be the biggest and best year yet for the festival which previously operated under the Beverley Fringe title from 2018-2021.

Supported by main sponsor Risby Homes - and with support from East Riding of Yorkshire Council and TC Group, the 2023 programme has now been announced.

Friday 16th kicks off in usual 'Big Gig' style at St Mary's Church, with award-winning folk trio The Magpies - plus support from local rising 'cinematic folk' outfit Pavey Ark.

Saturday is filled with music; from Morris dancing and busking in the streets, to a free 'folk taster' workshop at St Nicholas' Church, and free acoustic concerts at East Riding Theatre cafe and The Monks Walk.

Saturday evening sees a special 'Songwriters in the Round' concert at St Nicholas' Church featuring Edwina Hayes, Katie Spencer, and Emily Slade, and the return of the popular Ceilidh dance event, which this year takes place at The Armstrong Centre.

The famous 'Late Night Club' finishes off Saturday evening at the East Riding Theatre cafe bar - providing a perfect wind-down with some exclusive performances from surprise special guests.

Sunday's headline act, the hugely popular string-based six-piece Hannah Moule & the Moulettes take to the stage of the East Riding Theatre, supported by acclaimed local singer-songwriter Ellie Pollard.

One of the organisers Phil Simpson says "We are delighted to once again present a grassroots-led, yet ambitious festival for our great town. The music scene we have here is fantastic all year round, and one of the aims of the event is to promote and develop that."

As usual there are lots of opportunities for musicians to get involved and open sessions 'just turn up and play' are planned each day at The Sun Inn and The Monks Walk-who are also presenting a great lineup of music including Hull's own Hillbilly Troupe, and newly-formed Irish-flavoured six-piece Paddy and the Portermen to name only two.

EAST RIDING THEATRE (ERT) HAS HAD A FANTASTIC 2023 SO FAR

The 'Under Milk Wood' team have been working hard during rehearsals to bring you their in-house production of a Dylan Thomas masterpiece.

Come along and discover how the residents of Llareggub live and how they dream.

"We are determined to do justice to one of the greatest pieces of theatre of the 20th century." - Director, Richard Avery.

During May 'Granny's Attic' and 'Lady Maisery' will be stopping off at the theatre on their UK wide tours. Then on Thursday 1st June 'A Tale of Two Cities: The Derby of Words and Song' brings back tales and legends of the Hull FC versus Hull Kingston Rovers derbies from the 19th century to now.

The Café has been thriving with customers loving and regularly sampling the local coffee and cake from The Blending Room and Cocoa Street respectively.

Over February and March there were play readings and scenic painting workshops as part of the Warm Spaces funding the theatre received.

From this successful initiative the Café Bar Managers are looking at more ways that they can get involved with local businesses and the local community. With that in mind there will be a regular Arts & Vintage fair, and they hope to be trialling a pop up restaurant. Head over to the Café whilst you're in Beverley and see for yourself how good the coffee and cake really is.

The Theatre Gallery has a new artist displaying their work monthly.

Currently it is figurative artist Saskia Berkin, and then from Saturday 20th May it will be watercolour artist John Elliott.

There is lots more going on at East Riding Theatre.

The best way of finding out what shows are coming up is to take a look at the Theatre website: www.eastridingtheatre.co.uk

CELEBRATING AMAZING FAMILY OPPORTUNITIES

Alongside our Swimming School and Fitness Training Centre we also provide some invaluable support during the school holidays by working in partnership with the Hull City Council and the North Lincolnshire Healthy Holidays project.

This project is a fabulous opportunity for families to enjoy time together doing some great activities that include a food provision. We are painfully aware that holiday times can be very expensive for families. National recognition of this has brought funding to local councils to try and combat these social and physical deprivations and make our holiday times fun and engaging with lots of opportunities to explore a full range of activities for all interests.

Although we work with Hull City Council and North Lincs, other Councils have similar opportunities for children and young adults aged 5 to 16 years and include a food offer. Just search your local Council website for Healthy Holiday activities. You will find that to be eligible for the funded sessions you are required to reside in their postcode area.

We are very proud of the offer we have available for all families of children and young people with special educational needs and disabilities as well as funding to provide inclusive sessions for 5 to 11 year olds. We have had the most amazing feedback from families who return to our sessions time and time again.

Our niche is swimming and sporting activities which includes fully funded swimming lessons, fun family swimming sessions and rookie lifeguards sessions throughout the whole of the Summer, Easter and Christmas holiday periods.

We also have additional activities available including sporting activities and holiday camps, rock climbing, Forest School, dance, boxing, arts and crafts, yoga/pilates, cook and eat, ice skating, trampolining and whole lot more,

You can also come and join us in some of the Hull parks where we have a whole range of fun sporting activities running daily.

Although we offer lots of sporting activities, you will find lots of other opportunities from a variety of organisations who partner with the Councils - there is something for everyone.

Check out your local Council and make your families summer spectacular! For full details on the Hull's offer visit our website: www.sportsabilityswimschool.co.uk/swim/ and click on the Healthy Holidays Tab. Or search www.healthyholidayshull.org

100 - STANDING THE TEST OF TIME

As Just Beverley marks their 100th edition which is such a fabulous achievement it seemed fitting to consider which area of my business might also be celebrating a centenary.

As if by magic it turns out that 2023 is the year that Disney celebrates 100 years of making dreams come true. Walt Disney arrived in California in the summer of 1923 with lots of hope and determination, but very little else. He had made a cartoon in Kansas City about a little girl in a cartoon world called Alice's Wonderland, and he decided that he would use this as his pilot film to sell a series of these "Alice Comedies" to a distributor.

The first Disney character - the predecessor to the much loved and very well know Mickey Mouse - was in fact Oswald the Lucky Rabbit created by a very young Walt Disney and Oswald featured in a silent black and white film in 1928.

Building your own business certainly has its challenges and I think it is fair to say Walt certainly faced a few of these. To be honest many may have given up but I am sure the millions of Disney enthusiasts of many ages, not to mention all the staff employed by Disney, are very pleased that he didn't.

He actually was sacked from one organisation for lacking creativity. He also had 300 rejections from financiers as his proposal was considered absurd.

So you could say he eventually got lucky, but I would say an individual that was very focused very determined and never gave up and followed his dream.

He persevered with his vision and created a brand and an experience that is now a global phenomenon and continues to bring joy to many people many years after his passing. It embraces technology and change however stays true to its core values.

Disney - whether it is in Florida, California, Paris, Hong Kong or on a Disney Cruise line - continues to be a very popular holiday experience.

It lends itself to multi-generational family groups. The continual enhancements with new rides, experiences and parks mean that whilst you go back to your old favourites there is often something new to enjoy too.

The thrill of the rides, the animal encounters, the parades, the character meetings, the collectible merchandise - just something that collectively is amazing.

Having a daughter who grew up obsessed with Harry Potter we were thrilled to combine the joy of Disney with the experiences at Universal Studios and Universal Islands of Adventure and enjoy many the magic of these parks too.

We have kept their Disney and Universal memorabilia in the loft and I am sure that even in a hundred years they will be both valued and recognised - however perhaps we should bring it to life and head out again and enjoy the magic for ourselves.

PREVENTING A HEALTH CRISIS WITH 100 INCREMENTAL CHANGES

I was pondering what to write for the 100th edition of Just Beverley when my attention was caught by an article on the television which reported that the UK is now at an all-time high for people being diagnosed with type 2 diabetes - according to Diabetes UK, the figure has passed five million for the first time and is predicted to increase with an "alarming" surge in the under-40's.

This sparked my interest as I had recently had feedback from a number of clients who had made changes in their lifestyle and particularly eating and drinking habits.

All of the clients who had given me feedback had made significant but small lifestyle changes in just one session of hypnotherapy and were so pleased with their achievements that they posted their results online. Anthony didn't want to give up sweets and biscuits completely but wanted to stop the evening habit of demolishing an entire packet without even noticing it... he wrote "I cannot speak highly enough of the work Fran does. She has more than helped me conquer my choccy biscuit addiction. Happy times and a shrinking waistline". I bumped into Anthony last week and he commented on how he'd had to punch an extra hole in his belt so he could tighten it.

Andy said "I highly endorse you Fran - you have helped me do amazing things - today is day 100 alcohol free!" Andy is not an alcoholic but just wanted to quit the habit of having a glass or two or three of his favourite tittle and replace it with a walk in the country and more exercise. Again, in just one session, he achieved his goal and now has more energy for work and play.

Denise, who came to see me in March said... "I came last Thurs... just thought I'd let you know how I'm doing. I honestly came out of your house thinking I'd wasted my money, I didn't feel any different at all. I told my husband it hadn't worked and we were both gutted... but... it has! I honestly don't know how but I've stopped having the endless hungry/void in my stomach that I was always trying to fill. I've found myself eating less without even being aware of it. I've chosen healthy options, even had a satsuma when I could have had cake (unheard of). I've been shopping and was not even tempted by chocolate or treats. I've not had cake or chocolate since last Thursday... but I know if I do want some it's OK as a treat! I feel free to just "be". If I lose weight then it's a bonus but I'm happy and feel free of guilt and pressure, I've got rid of my endless diet books, given away my Fitbit and scales. Mentally and emotionally, I feel so much lighter. I'm sleeping well and just happy with no drama, no torment, no good days or bad days... just happy days! At the moment I feel content but if I feel things going backwards, I will be right back on your sofa in a flash! Thank you so much for "re-setting" me xx"

All of the people above made a decision to change something small in their lives and achieved life-enhancing and health-giving benefits. The added sugar in alcohol and "treat" foods like biscuits and cake over a prolonged period can be life-limiting and result in a diagnosis of diabetes. The good news is that the power to change is within you. Start of small and maybe do 100 extra steps a day and you don't even have to leave the house - 100 steps up and down the stairs whilst you listen to your favourite TV programme. If you need a little more help, give me a call and I'll let you know how hypnotherapy can help you achieve your health and lifestyle goals.

So, there's my link with the Just Beverley 100th edition and I'm truly delighted and grateful to be part of such a positive publication. Congratulations to Just Beverley and all the contributors and the team who put the magazine together and let's all keep up the positivity - here's to the next 100.
